NEW POLLARD BILL FOR TOMORROW NIGHT

Following the half-week of delightful vaudeville at the Bijou the Pollard Juvenile Opera Company will present the "Golden Boodle" Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee. The music is by Fred Hall of the Melbourne Opera House in two acts. This is one of the great musical successes produced recently in Australia and is replete with comedy and hitting music.

In this production the Pollards are well rehearsed and the production promises to be far in advance of any musical comedy ever presented to a Honolulu audience. The advance sale is already large.

Tonight will be the last night of vaudeville. Many of the musical successes of the Pollard's Lilliputians when here four years ago are being presented—all musical gems. Eva Pollard and Leslie Donaghey put on one of the musical duos of the old Lilliputian days and scored several encores. Donaghey also sings "We parted on the Shore." Queenie Williams is by far one of the greatest little character artists on the stage.
Nellie McNamara's beautiful voice is heard to the best advantage in "The Rosary," while Teddy McNamara's Harry Lauder imitations almost excel Lauder himself. There are ballets, fancy dances, running for nearly three hours.

Womanly Strength and Beauty

The woman who is really beautiful is the woman who is well. The languid, nervous style of beauty once so popular with fiction writers is no longer in favor, either in books or in daily life. The beauty of today eats heartily and sleeps well and trusts to nature to paint its roses in her cheeks.
No medicine is better adapted to woman's needs than
